BUTLER ROCKS

Tight end Jeremy Harkin celebrates after a Butler touchdown in the Bulldogs' 17-3 victory over Clinch Valley on a warm September day. Harkin was later named co-offensive MVP of the football team.

Parading down Hampton, the Kappa Alpha Thetas timewarp to the stone ages for a stroll with Fred, Barney, Wilma and Betty as they celebrate Butler "Bed" rocks.

Homecoming 1997

The Delta Gammas led the student stampede to the all-campus cookout on the Lake Drive before Yell-like-Hell. In the race between the sorority members and the Butler Band to the tent, it seems that the DGs took an early lead.

One Butler tradition that has stood the test of time is the annual Sigma Chi/ Phi Delt Chariot Race down Hampton Drive. Student who did wake up for the early 9 a.m. start were treated to a runaway Phi Delt victory. Sigma Chi Nate Perdue grimaces as his neighbors celebrate.

KA-BLAMO! Butler tuition dollars go up in flames to the cheers of many students after Yell-like-Hell. The display culminated with the lighting of a sparkling "Butler" sign.

Widereceiver Husani Dillon and the Clinch Valley cornerback concentrate on a pass from Eli Stoddard. The Bulldogs made it a long bus ride back to West Virginia for their homecoming opponents.

Yell-like-Hell gave every housing unit a chance to play cheerleader for the Bulldogs. The event also included a performance by the dance team and a spirited speech by Coach LaRose as he introduced the team before darkness fell on the rally. (Alpha Phi pictured)

Freshman need time to adjust and learn how to live on their own without the parental guidance they are used to having. These freshmen take a minute out of their busy Freshmen Weekend schedule to teach each other the proper shaving techniques.

Phi Psi John Horvath does his best to spread yuletide cheer at the Giving Tree Christmas party. President Bannister made an appearance and read "The Night Before Christmas" to all the party-goers.

Alpha Phi Sophomore Emily Guinnin and Senior Beth Butler lend a helping hand during the Giving Tree Christmas Party. The Giving Tree is a program where students and faculty each help Santa to bring Christmas gifts and holiday cheer to those who wouldn't have it otherwise.

Getting to know you, getting to know all about you... Incoming Freshman take a break from campus life and enjoy the Walden-esque lifestyle of Freshman Weekend. Thoreau never did this with his neighbors but then again he never went to Butler.

Kappa new members strut their Saturday Night Live stuff in the Reilly Room. Sometimes when she gets really nervous she... never mind. The YMCA sponsors Freshman Skits as a way to introduce the new members to the Greek competition world.

The most popular song at the Ruth Lily Outdoor Center is none other than YMCA. Aren't you glad you used Dial... don't you wish everyone did?

The song says that you can have a good time at the YMCA and if that means playing cards with the four and six of spades protruding from your ears, so be it.

Representing the students and providing them with good, wholesome, activities (and the drunk bus) are the main jobs of the...

One of SGA's events was the battle of the bands held in the Reilly Room.

Once they were friends but after the election, Amber attempts to strangle the victorious Aaron. Seriously, these two were an integral part of every SGA event and will remain active next year.

SGA also puts together the popular all-night fight known as Spring Sports Spectacular. Sumo wrestling and shuffle-board were just two of the many activities for students to compete in. The event also had one of the best college buffets in history.

The movie of the week in Jordan Hall 141 is one of the most popular of all of SGA's programs. Movies this semester included Jackie Brown and As Good As It Gets.

Marcus Polk and BSU secretary Sherard Allen welcome students to the Overcoming Obstacles Shadow Day. The event was held at Butler on November 18, 1997.

Nikki Brown, Vice President of BSU, assists a young resident of the Christian Center for the homeless in making a Thanksgiving turkey. As you can see, the youngsters were all smiles that day!

Delta Gamma new members do their rendition of "I Will Survive" at Freshman Skits. Their version of the two thousand and one ways to survive freshman year took third place.

Lamda Chi associate member Eric Harvey busts a move while acting in the annual Blue Key Freshman Skits. Eric took the challenging role of acting like a fraternity member while two of his buddies went for an even more difficult role.

The annual Lambda Chi Teeter Totter was again a success despite the bad weather. These children appear to be enjoying the event that raises money for the Leukemia Society.

TKE

Freshman skits is always a good opportunity to have new members dress like women. The TKE new members were no exception to this rule.

But, really, spring sing can't be overlooked for a chance for upperclassmen to dress up like women. The humor possibilities are seemingly endless.

Showing off their "why can't we all just get along" spirit, the freshman of Tau Kappa Epsilon join arms during Freshman Skits. It was a performance to remember.

This unidentified SNU prepares for the annual voodoo bash at the house. The new alcohol policy at Butler is making it more and more difficult for the Greek houses to show the student body a good time.

As editor, I sincerely apologize for everyone having to look at my face so much in this book. It is always annoying to see the editor's picture in spreads he/she doesn't really need to be in. The problem is that my photography staff was about as useful as a C&T class. If you have any photos of ANYTHING for the current year, please drop them off in the Drift office in Atherton Union 307 and they will probably be used in next years book. Thanks.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

Melanie Gensert (Fr), Alpha Phi: "This was my first all-campus event as a member of Alpha Phi and it was great how all the girls worked together to do their best whether they were playing or cheering."

Andrew Jones (Jr), Phi Psi: "It's a good idea to have volunteering count towards points because it makes people want to get involved. It puts some of the emphasis on being social with everyone rather than just having a competition among housing units."

Matt Cerny (Sr), Phi Psi: "We had meetings every week with team captains and spent a lot of time organizing Spring Sports Spectacular. I am really grateful to everyone who put in long hours, especially on the night of the event."

Laura Maher (So), Delta Gamma: "It was very hard for us short people to throw it down in the slam dunk competition, but getting the crowd into the spirit of Spring Sports was well worth it."

Fictional Quote:
It was great being the editor of The Collegian because I had the pleasure of working with columnist Jim McGowan. He was a model columnist. He always had his columns typed in and ready to go days before lay-out. In addition, the material was of such high quality that little to no editing was ever necessary.

-Jim McGowan

"Seniors, please pardon our behavior during senior week... it had been a looong year! I hope everyone had as much fun as we did!"

-Shelby Smothers

"We were successful because no one really took it too seriously. Our Thursday meetings were focused but light-hearted. We just had fun and things came together."

-Laurie Williamson

"Raising the money was easy because everyone was supportive of the gift. People liked the gates and wanted to be a part of it by donating. Sly's my hero."

-Eric Palm

pparently there was enough money ft over from the gift to buy strawberries r Cindy Law (claw)! The senior class ised nearly five thousand three hun-ed dollars which was the highest total er.

Eric Palm and Shelby Smothers are all smiles at the dedication ceremony. It was a huge relief to all the officers when all the money was finally raised. The class officers were usually more animated though (just ask L.J.).

Unfortunately, the Indy Pace car wasn't the class gift, but, President B. was gracious enough to allow Jim and Laurie pretend it was.

Erin Duffy (eduffy) from the department of annual giving, worked closely with the officers in raising the money. Her reaction in this picture sums up what that experience was like.

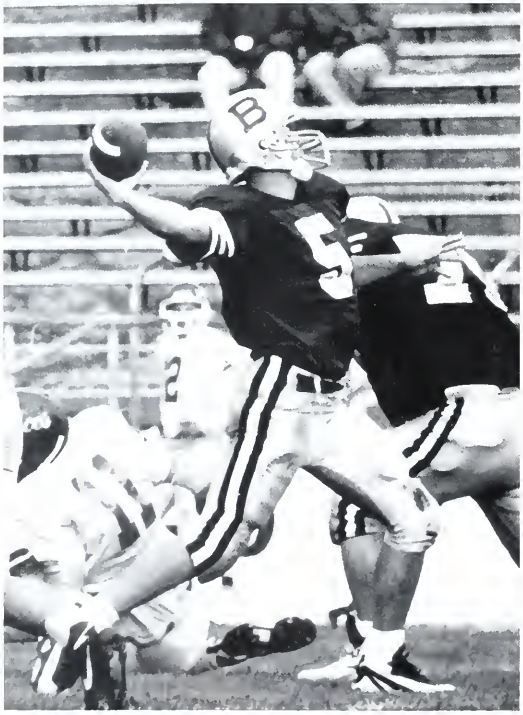
FOOTBALL ON THE SIDE: Four Butler defensive players make a sandwich of their Clinch Valley opponent while Kevin Ward (#43) eyes the side dish. Ward's 161 tackles led the Pioneer Football League.



BOMBS AWAY: Senior QB Eli Stoddard launches one of his 12 TD passes of the season. Stoddard threw for 2,118 yards which was third all-time for Butler quarterbacks. Stoddard was named co-offensive MVP with tight end Jeremy Harkin.

ILLEGAL USE OF HANDS: Junior tailback Naim Sanders escapes the uncomfortable tackle of a St. Joseph's defender. Sanders rushed for 202 yards on 35 carries and scored two touchdowns. In the final game of the season earning him PFL "offensive player of the week" honors.

COMEBACK KIDS

THE BULLDOGS CAME FROM BEHIND TO WIN THEIR FINAL THREE GAMES AND POST A 6-4 RECORD

HEAD OVER HEELS: Widereceiver Husani Dillon hauls in one of his 37 catches of the year. Dillon's 738 receiving yards was the seventh highest single season receiving total in Butler history.

COUNT ON ME, TOGETHER WE WILL WIN: Coach LaRose and the Bulldog squad lived up to their motto this year by posting the first winning record in three years. Since deciding to be a non-scholarship squad, the Bulldogs had posted records of 2-8 and 3-7. Players, coaches, and fans agreed that the 14-13 win over Drake late in the season was the most exciting game of the year. Th last minute victory avenged the 51-7 loss at Drake the previous season.

KIWI SLAP: New Zealander Lori Ives averages 10.2 points and 5.9 rebounds per game and also collected 13 blocks. Ives was named to the All-MCC Newcomer squad.

DRIBBLE DRIVE: Debbie Benziger started all 31 games for the lady Bulldogs averaging 10 points and 3 rebounds per game. Debbie also led the team in free throw percentage at just under 93%.

MUNCHED!: Sarah Reichl contributed off the bench during the ladie's 25-6 season. The Bulldogs were tough at home going 14-1 and 7-0 against MCC foes.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Sarah Schuetz was named the MCC player of the year after averaging 17.5 points, 7.4 rebounds, and .5 blocks per game. Schuetz was the main reason the team had the best conference record at 13-1.

N.I.T. BID

MCC Championship Game Loss To UWGB Ousts Ladies From NCAA Tourney.

BE THE THREE: Lacy Holloway attempts one of her three three pointers of the season. Lacy didn't see much playing time this year but will be an important player in teams of the future.

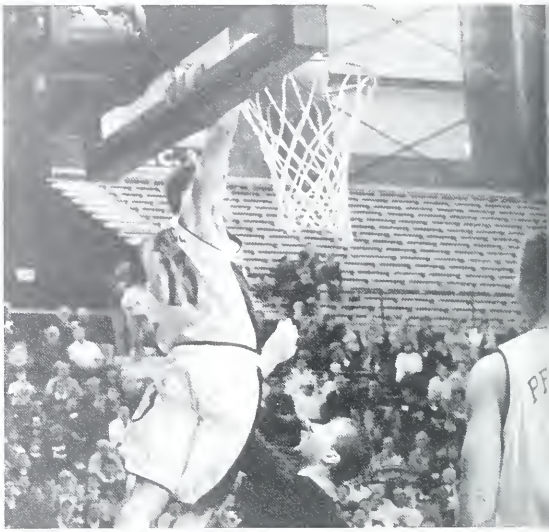
WHERE'S MY CONTACT?: The seniors take part in the traditional smooch of the Bulldog prior to their final home game of the season.

I WANT TO BE LIKE MIKE: Well, LaVall has the right last name but he still needs to work on his game to get compared to the real Jordan.

IN YOUR FACE: High-Flying Dan Dudkovich averaged 7.4 points per game which usually included at least one dunk.



UP FOR GRABS: The Bulldogs prided themselves on out-hustling their opponents. Although the Bulldogs had a difficult time on the road this year they played strong at Hinkle Fieldhouse going 13-1

TEAM UNITY: No one really gave Butler a shot of winning the MCC tournament but together they pulled it off and got a free trip to the NCAA tournament. MCC foes UIC and Detroit also got bids to the tournament.

TOURNEY REPEAT

RETURN TO SENDER: Rolf Van Rijn led the Bulldogs with 64 blocked shots. Rolf also averaged 8.8 points and 4.6 rebounds during the season.

FAN FAVORITE: Because of his all out hustle and energy, Mike Marshall was a fan favorite. Mike also played some great basketball averaging 5 points and 5 rebounds per game. Mike led the team in double-figure rebound games with five.

RODMAN IMPERSONATION: Jon Neuhouser followed up his MCC player of the year season of '96-'97 by averaging 12.6 points and 5 rebounds per game. Neuhouser also shot an impressive %50 from the field and %40 from behind the three point line.

DIG DUG: Senior co-captain Jen Kintzel lays it all on the line on defense. Kintzel proved she was more than just a setter by being second on the team in digs with 367.

1330 ASSISTS: Kintzel became both the Butler and MCC all-time career assist leader during the season. Kintzel led the team with 1330 assists.

WITH HONORS: Kintzel was named All-Conference and set a record for ten All-Tournament selections in a row. The Bulldogs took the MCC championship by beating Loyola and received their first ever bid to the NCAA tournament.

STRETCH: Senior Amy Pickett hits one of her team leading 439 kills. Pickett also had 33 service aces and 206 digs and was a major reason the Bulldogs were the "team to beat" in the MCC.

RECORD BREAKER

IN YOUR FACE: Senior standout Heather Cox buries one of her 335 kills of the season. Cox was a co-captain of the squad and was named All-Conference.

MAD SCRAMBLE: Freshman Phil Schaefer rushed the Radford goal as Doug Patterson looks on. The Bulldogs beat Radford 14-12 which boosted their recoed to 6-2 for the season.

NCAA BERTH

THAT'S GOT TO HURT: You bet it does. Lacrosse is like hockey without the leg pads. Butler's program has become known for its toughness.

So What Happened?

Butler was named to the 12 team NCAA Tournament for finishing as the top team in the West Region. The Dogs were matched up with national power Maryland who ended the Bulldogs hopes of a Cinderella story in the first round of the tournament.

Congratulations on a record setting season!

LAYING AN EGG: The Notre Dame goaltender is a bit confused as to where the ball actually is. The victory over Notre Dame boosted the club to 7-2 and secured its first place ranking in the West Region.

SWING AND A MISS: The Butler bats were relatively quiet this season. The Dogs were outscored 140-105 and batted only .237 as a team while opponents batted .251 for the season.

CONFERENCE UPSET

Highlight to .500 Season Was The 2-1 Upset of #24 Ranked UIC.

BOOM BABY!: Junior Shelli Hanschu rips one of her 23 hits of the season. Hanschu was the Cal Ripken of the team starting all 42 games.

Play of the Year

Protecting a 2-1 lead n the sixth inning, JIC attempted a suiide-squeeze play but he potential tieing un was tagged out by Vood. The lead held nd the Dogs had upet the #24 team in the ıation!

READY OR NOT, HERE IT COMES!: Kena Woods went 2-5 for the Dogs and pitched one shutout during the season.

CLOSE CALL: Senior Matt Bartley puts the tag on a Cleveland State opponent. The Bulldogs swept the Cleveland State squad for their first conference sweep since 1996.

BIG DOG: Senior catcher Justin Beasley is the main power force offensively at the plate. As of April 21 he was hitting .404 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI's.

FUTURE PROSPECT: Although he wasn't used all that much, Mike Kukolj did post a 1.80 ERA in the three games that he did play.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL: Opponents didn't outdo the Bulldogs in many categories this season but the Dogs did commit 13 more errors than their opponents in route to their MCC Championship.

MCC CHAMPS

Squad Sets Record For Most Wins In A Season And Win MCC Crown.

SPEED KILLS: Sophomore Eric Storey beats out an infield hit during the Cleveland State series.

ACE: Steve Magill collected 8 wins which led the team. Magill also threw 3 complete games for the Dogs this season.

Stat of the Year

Sure, the Bulldogs were 8-0 when they wore their batting practice jerseys and 0-0 when leading after seven innings but few people know that the Dogs went 8-0 when reserve infielder/sports information contact Tony Hamilton saw playing time.

Tony graduated on the mound at UIC during the MCC tournament which was held on the same day as Butler commencement.

POETRY IN MOTION: Four overtime periods, eight penalty kicks and some fancy footwork weren't enough to clinch the MCC Championship for the Bulldogs.

I BELIEVE I CAN FLY: Junior goalkeeper E.B. Larson set team records for fewest goals allowed in a season (17) and most shutouts (9). Larson was also named MCC player of the week in October after saving 18 shots in the game against #13 Florida.

HEARTBREAK HOTEL

WOMEN LOSE MCC CHAMPIONSHIP AND NCAA BID IN FOUR-OVERTIME BATTLE

I'D LIKE TO GET THIS OFF MY CHEST: Freshman Alicia Franklin scored a goal and an assist in three tournament games and was named to the MCC All-Tournament team.

DRAWING A CROWD: With her potent goal-scoring ability and an experienced supporting cast, freshman Alicia Franklin will be a key piece of the Bulldogs' future goals. These goals include winning the MCC title and earning a bid to the NCAA tournament.

WINTER WONDERLAND: Despite the severe conditions, Matt Long (#14) leads the Bulldogs to their second NCAA appearance in three years.

FANCY FOOTWORK: Junior Jeremy Aldrich (#4) does his part in the Bulldog's shut out MCC tournament win against Cleveland State. The win contributed to stand-out goalkeeper Alan Placek's four team records, including most shutouts in a season.

SILENT INTENSITY

TEAM MOTTO SET THE STANDARD FOR MCC CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

STRIP TEASE: Junior Jeremy Harkins tries to escape the hands-on defending of a Bowling Green opponent during a 3-2 loss to the nationally ranked Falcons. Harkins was named to the Nike/Snickers SoccerFest II all-tournament team for his efforts.

HUG ME!: Craig Donaldson (#10) and Stephen Armstrong (#16) celebrate one of the goals scored on the way to their third straight conference championship game. Armstrong led the Bulldogs in season scoring.

TIGHT ROPE WALKER: Junior Jeremy Harkins sprints down the sideline hoping to keep the ball in bounds. Harkins is one of many underclassmen that will keep Butler at the top of the coaches polls for years to come. Another reason Butler is so successful is their tenacious defense. The Bulldogs played in fourteen games decided by one goal and also played five overtime games.

BUTLER'S SQUAD PLACES TENTH AT THEIR FIRST NATIONAL

SPARE GOALPOSTS!: Keeping in shape and always striving to improve and not regress is the focus of the cheerleading squad. These nine improved and did their best all football season.

THE BULLDOG HAS A HEAD IN ITS MOUTH!: Butler's mascot, the bulldog (a.k.a. Adam Underhill), added personality to basketball games. He helped lead cheers and fire up the crowd.

"It wasn't the competition that was so memorable, but the people who worked so hard to achieve what we did."

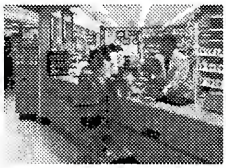
The Future Has Arrived At Walgreens



We've already put a lot of things in place that the rest of the industry is still talking about – things like Walgreens *Intercom Plus, a companywide computer system linking over 2500 pharmacies to one another with vital patient information. However, one thing remains old-fashioned – we care about our patients, and that's something that will never change.

As the $12 billion leader in the retail pharmacy industry, we currently have opportunities available nationwide including the following high growth areas: Florida, Arizona, Las Vegas, California, Tennessee, Texas and St. Louis.

Let your future be Walgreens — the state-of-the-art pharmacy with down-to-earth values. We offer our pharmacists outstanding starting salaries and benefits packages including major medical/dental/life insurance, long-term disability, profit sharing and stock options plans. In addition, a work environment conducive to personal and professional growth. Call or send your resume to: Dawn DiLullo, R.Ph., Manager, Pharmacy Relations, Walgreen Co., Personnel Recruitment Dept., 200 Wilmot Rd., #2198, Deerfield, IL 60015-4616. Ph: 1-800-274-0085. Fax: 847-914-2333. E-mail: dawn.dilullo@walgreens.com

Do Your Career Justice.

If you are presently a full-time or graduate student, you could be eligible for a CIA internship and tuition assistance. You don't have to be an aspiring missile warhead specialist or Kremlinologist. We need knowledgeable, dedicated men and women from a variety of backgrounds and fields.

Leading engineers, computer specialists, economists, foreign area experts and intelligence analysts are just a few of the professionals you'll get hands-on experience working with...and a head start on your career.

Our business is knowing the world's business

For information about student programs and career opportunities write to: CIA Employment Center, P O Box 12727, Dept. 14AI, Arlington, VA 22209-8727. Laurie Williamson looks all around the office for the rest of the Drift staff. It looks like they are home for the summer while Jim finishes up the last, oh, 80 pages.

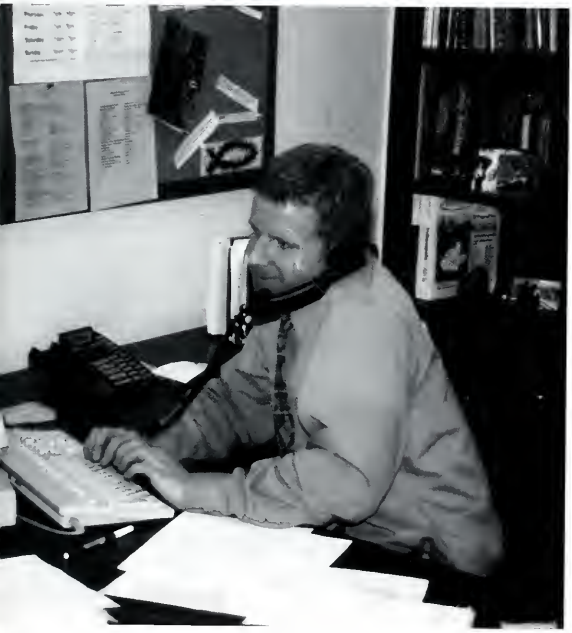
Candy Brady of Campus Activities is the one behind the scenes who gets all the important stuff taken care of for The Drift... payroll. Thanks Candy for all of your help!



David Clark serves as the yearbook advisor and really helps out by generally staying out of the way. Thanks for your low pressure advising... we couldn't have done it without you.

Serenity Now.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I seriously can't believe that you are actually reading the Editor's Note. What's with you? Don't you have anything better to do with your time than read a column full of text that some bozo English Education major wrote? What kind of "Note" do you think it could possibly be that it would have any meaning to you whatsoever?

You're still reading? Are you insane? Are you in a high security prison where the only reading materials are this Editor's Note and your Perkins Loan Repayment Schedule Form? If so, start reading the Perkins Loan Repayment Schedule Form!

Why won't you just listen to reason? Is it that you have missed all the boring copy blocks that are usually in a yearbook which you don't find in this one? Are you mad about that? Have you ever read yearbook copy before? It is the second most prevalent reason for teenage suicide... it's so cheesy it rivals Wisconsin as the cheese status symbol... it needs to be stopped. Don't worry, most of the information you need is in the captions or in this Editor's Note.

OK, now you're scaring me. Really, put the book down and step away. Nothing to see here. What do you want from me? Some inspirational message? Some farewell advice? Too bad. Stop reading, I'm not going to do it. There is no punch line, this wasn't a test of your patience... it's over. Bye. Get out of here. Turn the page!

-Jim McGowan
